Date of Erection 1830

Architect Unknown

Builder Unknown

Present Condition Good

Number of Stories One

Other Existing Records None

Materials of Construction Stone, recently stuccoed, new roof.

Additional Data Built of random native stone and recently stuccoed. At this writing owing perhaps to a revival of good taste the stucco is being removed and the stone jointing slushed with cement mortar. The windows are large and in good scale. The interior is without architectural interest but contains a pew said to have been used by Sam Houston. See also Adolphus Sterne house Tex-234.
